The Innovator

The founder Ivette Cortiella, recognized early on that the fitness industry was ripe for innovation.

Backed by many years in this industry and entrepreneurial experience, she developed a trend-setting business model that allows licensees to work in the enjoyable, fun, secure, interactive and fast-growing fitness industry as an independent business owner.

Ivette Cortiella understood that fitness consumers were looking for convenience and affordability. Yet, they were not willing to accept substandard equipment or lackluster environments. This knowledge led to the development of the one and only children and teens, co-ed fitness models. At SuperKid Fitness, parents can feel safe their children are working out in a safe and fun environment that will lead to mind-blowing results.

Where SuperKid Fitness is really truly unique is in their use of proprietary access software, security, and state of the art technology. The exclusive SuperKid Fitness access system allows a club owner to feel safe that all their confidential information and their customers merchant information is being kept secure in the cloud in a secure server. Our state-of-the-art security system allows members to feel safe and secure, even when a club is staffed by different employees. Prices on build-outs can vary by area, city or state. To receive more information, please see instructions on following pages and or contact us directly.

Some costs will vary in relation to the physical size of the fitness center. A lower cost center is one that would require fewer leasehold improvements and fewer equipment expenditures. Moderate and higher square footage fitness centers will require additional equipment. The above figures do not include extensive interior/exterior demolitions if needed.

Controlling Expenses

A key business strategy with SuperKid Fitness is to keep your expenses low. Our compact facilities incorporate a simple interior design so you may not have to spend a lot on leasehold improvements.. Keep in mind that expenses will vary based on the economics of your area, but our streamlined operations process may help you shave costs. Our experienced lease negotiating team can also assist you in dealing with landlords, equipment representatives, and other industry vendors.

Here's a list of the largest expenses typical clubs have and how we can help lower them:

Monthly Lease Negotiation IF Needed

Lease negotiations can be tenuous. Considering the different lease terms, like triple net leases, gross leases, and CAM charges, deciding on a lease option can be daunting if you lack experience in dealing with building owners if you need our help. Our real estate experts can help you achieve the lowest possible rate and make sure the lease is structured with your best interests in mind.

Equipment and other Purchase

Our team can work with you on choosing the best equipment for the size of your club and your budget. Our volume buying power may provide savings to you, as we are able to obtain discounted rates with preferred local vendors. We can make suggestions based your market demographics, area competition, your personal preferences, and our experience with other Licensees feedback. Our finance experts can assist you with leasing/buying options and put you in touch with some of the best banks in the fitness industry.

Business Insurance Is Needed

What type should you buy? How much should you have? Where do you get it? These are questions were used to handling. Let our insurance experts assist you with these important questions. Full coverage insurance is not expensive at all, Example; starting rates at about $110 a month.

Payroll

The biggest expense the average fitness club has is payroll (sometimes as high as 50%). Our exclusive systems integration allows you to run a safe and secure operation with dramatically lower, if not eliminated, payroll costs by hiring subcontractors that are certified and insured and or volunteers.
